NORTHUMBERLAND

Welcome

Congratulations on your engagement and thank you for considering Brinkburn Northumberland as your wedding venue.

Sitting in incredible grounds and surrounded by stunning woodland, the spaces combine traditional architecture with a contemporary finish to provide the perfect riverside backdrop for you and your guests to celebrate your big day.

Limited Edition - Simply Marry

Northumberland is in Tier 2 – you can get married now with fifteen favourites. A truly special and intimate wedding designed for those who can't wait to say 'I do'. Live in the now and you can be married in as little as 6 weeks celebrating with you and a few.

From as little as £3545 including food and drink

Coronavirus Update

For couples looking to get married in March-October 2022 or 2023 (when our tipis are up) bookings will only be taken on the basis of a maximum of 50 guests (day and night), with the understanding that they may be able to add additional guests in the future.

For couples that are looking to get married in November-February 2022 or 2023 (when our tipis are down) booking will only be taken on the basis of a maximum of 28 guests (day and night), with the understanding that they may be able to add additional guests in the future.

Please note we are currently only able to offer weddings at Brinkburn in line with government guidelines and on the basis of a maximum of 15 people (including the couple, witnesses and guests. The registrars, photographers, and staff employed by the venue, third-party suppliers or catering staff ARE NOT included in the 15.). However, should the government relax their guidelines we are optimistic that this could increase to our venues maximum social distancing capacity of 50 people when our tipis are up from March-October.

The Priory

Brinkburn Priory was built in 1135 by monks, who found unrivalled solitude in the peaceful setting by the River Coquet, which gently loops around the ravine.

For a religious church service, the Priory can accommodate up to 120 guests for a Church Of England wedding or blessing.

The Manor House

Brinkburn has provided the perfect place for people to rest, reflect and celebrate for thousands of years.

The un-restored Manor House can host celebrant, humanist and civil ceremonies followed with the legal signing then taking place in the White Room.

The White Room

The White Room provides space for up to 80 guests for a civil wedding ceremony, it is also possible to hold this outside on the terrace.

For small intimate winter weddings the White Room can hold up to 50 people to dine negating the need for the tipi.

The Tipis

Our magical, immaculate tipis dine up to 120 seated guests from March until October. In the evening revellers dance in the White Room and outside on the terraces whilst the bar in the tipi comes alive.

Drinks

Our bartenders will be on hand throughout your wedding day to serve a wide variety of drinks from the minute your guests arrive until the moment they depart. You can get really creative with your selected drinks with options ranging from a classic glass of prosecco to your own signature cocktail.

Dining

Sit down to a formal wedding breakfast, country house high tea, a traditional Northumberland hog roast, or something seasonally special and authentically created.

Our chefs Neil & Mary Wilkins from Wilkins Fine Dining use only the finest ingredients sourced from local suppliers to create the most mouth-watering of dishes.

White Room Dancing

During the tipi wedding breakfast your evening band or DJ discreetly set up alongside the Brinkburn team who transform the White Room into a glamorous dancing space. Music played in the White Room is piped through into the tipi bar so that guests can enjoy a seamless evening of music, dancing and chilling.

Accomodation

Six beautiful residences which sleep up to 28 in simple self-contained luxury. A homely affair leading to relaxed guests, roaring fires, sink-into soft beds, cosy robes and spacious bathrooms. A great place to kick back, relax and put your feet up over your weekend wedding or 2-day midweek wedding escape.

Little points to note

What is the booking process?

Once we have agreed a date, a deposit and booking form secures your big day, allowing you to send out invitations and start to let people know where and when the wedding will be.

What are the next steps after I have booked?

Your Brinkburn wedding co-ordinator will work with you to plan your wedding. We hold regular open days when you can return and visit Brinkburn or arrange a consultation with your Brinkburn wedding co-ordinator to make your ideas come alive.

How does the menu tasting go?

If you select a traditional 3 course menu, you can try two starters, two mains and two desserts.

If you select a 3 course sharing menu, you can try five starters, three mains and three desserts.

If you select a 2 course sharing menu, you can try three mains and either three starters or three desserts.

Guests with dietary requirements will be provided with an alternative dish. However due to our set up, choices can not be offered to other guests.

What about parking?

All cars must be left in the main car park. For your guest's comfort we do strongly advise that couples book our recommended shuttle bus to take guests to the main venue.

Are dogs permitted?

We are a dog friendly venue and welcome well behaved dogs. We do however limit the amount of dogs per property and have a policy of no dogs upstairs in our accommodation.

Is music allowed in the tipi?

DJ's & Bands are not permitted in the tipis but acoustic or background music is welcomed.

Is there any restrictions on Church of England Priory Weddings?

For a Church of England Wedding, church attendance is required 6 times within 6 months of your date.
